1. The meeting was called to order by Michael Edwards, chair. It was determined that a quorum was present and the meeting could conduct business.
2. The minutes of January 14 were approved.
3. Michael Edwards led a discussion of the February 10 listening session regarding the university's proposed 2021-2030 strategic plan. This listening session was provided by Provost Arden and members of the strategic planning steering committee, for members of the International Operations Council and the Committee on International Programs. Highlights were summarized and discussed, particularly to benefit those committee members who had been unable to attend.
4. Ingrid Schmidt reminded CIP members to partner with their IOC counterparts in each college or unit, to meet with their deans, department heads, and other colleagues, advocating that global goals be incorporated into their unit's strategic planning. Talking points regarding the Global Learning for All framework were provided.
5. CIP members were encouraged to invite their colleagues to the February 12 online session, "Global 3D: discuss, discover, develop" to learn more about engaging in collaborative online international learning (COIL).
