Agenda/Minutes

Dr. Hobbs Updates:

Awards Moving Forward:

- We will look at cleaning up award process and making it more streamlined
- Making sure that the website is clear that recipients get paid in the next fiscal year

Programming

- We had a great Global 3D yesterday (4/12) on the European Center in Prague - video recording available
- Heidi will be in Prague May 13-20 in effort to help drive faculty engagement

- Please join us at our Global Engagement Expo on April 19. We will be announcing the Outstanding Global Engagement, Jackson Rigney, and Distinguished Global Alumni Awards!
- We are trying to reinvigorate the Regional Engagement Teams (RET)! We had a great event last night (4/12) with the Global Training Institute will all faculty interested in Latin America.
 - We are hoping to have another one in the fall representing another RET group

Initiatives to Promote Global Engagement

- Suggestion for committee to show the film: Bending the Arc
- Intersection to connect with Sid's Global One Health Academy, way for CIP to support the academy
- Packways for all - help create high impact experiences for students and communities for faculty and staff to accelerate high-impact experiences. This is currently in the launch phase. More fully integrate global experiences for undergraduate students
- Having a separate meeting early on in the fall to help assimilate new members into the group
- In anticipation of the new VP of Global Engagement, start making lists on what support CIP would like from this person
- Outreach and training faculty for faculty about outreach for international students. Reinvigorate scholar and intern programs
- Reinvigorate the Researcher Gallery (Airtable) under the leadership of Leah
- Encourage admissions committees to make admissions decisions to support international and Fulbright students
- International grad students, ask for assistantship for international students
- GSSP Manager presentation on international graduate admissions
