Who Pays for the GSSP?

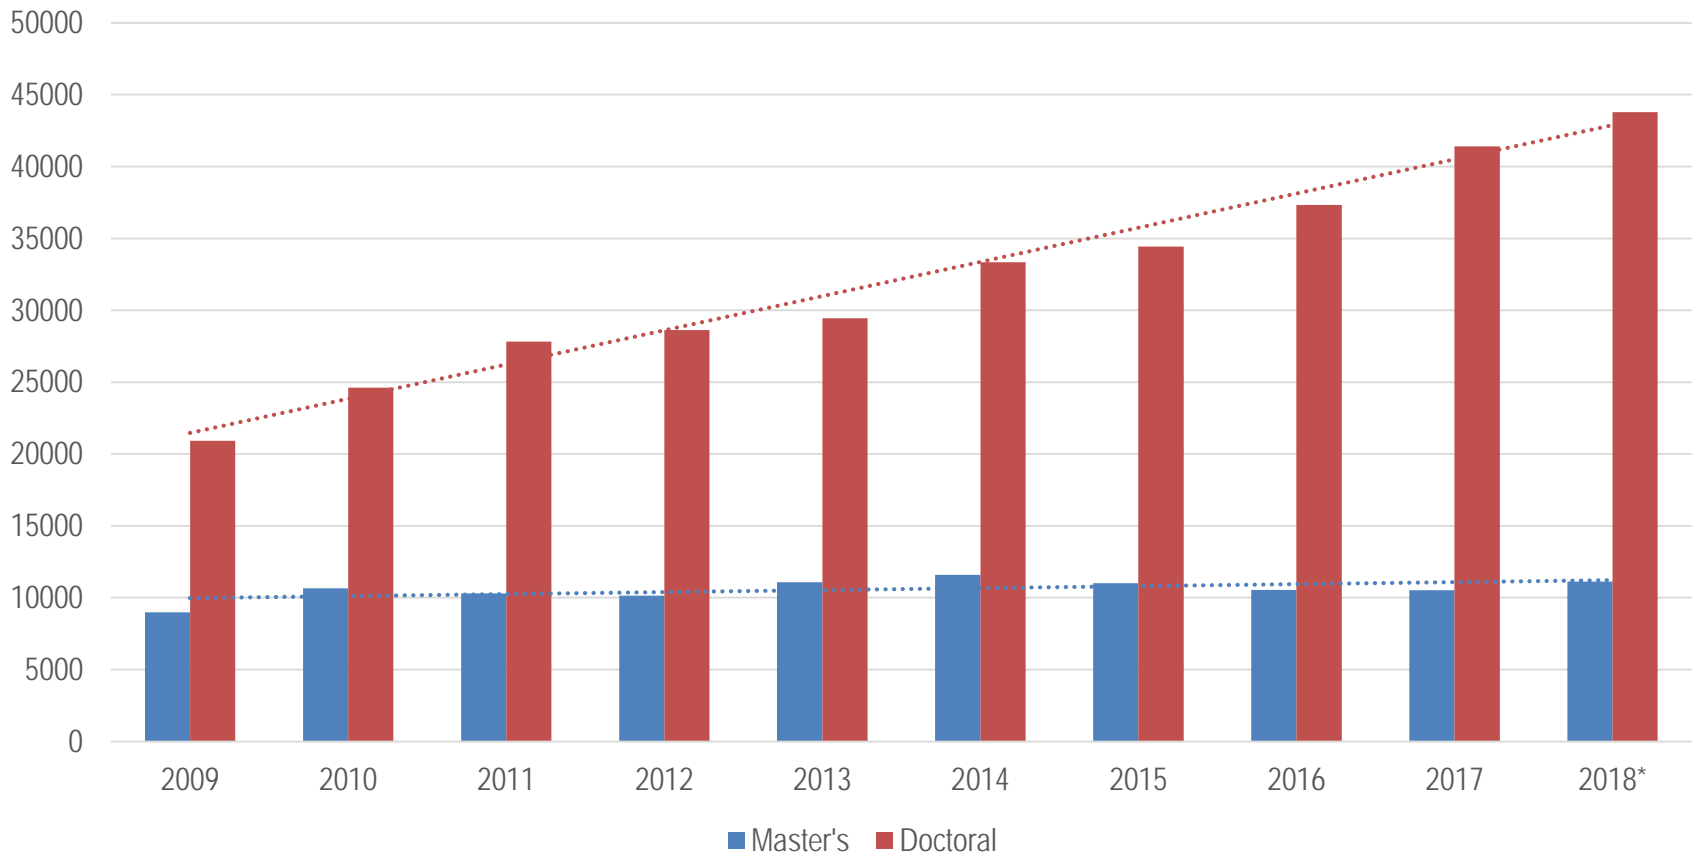

Stipend funding source dictates how GSSP benefits are paid:

- State-appropriations (academic affairs – TAs) funded appointments:
 - Health insurance, in-state tuition, and out-of-state tuition by central resources
- Non-State appropriations funded appointments (e.g., grants – RAs & Fellows)
 - Source of the stipend pays health insurance, in-state tuition, and 25% of the out-of-state portion of tuition
 - Central resources pays 75% of out-of-state portion of tuition

GSSP by Degree Type

All Funding Sources (x $1,000)

Note: Total academic year GSSP spending (GSHI, ISTA, TR).

*FY 2018 projection based on 2017 GSSP usage across degree types applied to 2018-2019 GSSP rates.

Rate Increases

Note: 9+ credit hour standard graduate tuition and 12-month health insurance rates (Tuition & Fee Rates - University Cashier's Office).
